

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Friday, February 20

1998

Marshall to Host Conference of Minority Universities Next Week

Marshall will host the National Alliance of NASA University Research Centers Technical Conference '98, Monday through Thursday, at the Von Braun Center. It will bring together representatives from 14 NASA University Research Centers to celebrate academic achievements of minority universities. High School Day will be Wednesday. Tennessee Valley high school students are invited to learn about the future of space exploration and research. Contact: Willie Love, 4-0088.

ISO 9000
Messages
Airing Daily on Center-wide TV
at 9:30 a.m.,
11:30 a.m.,
2:30 p.m.

ISO Reminder: Use Correct Documents and Procedures

Lunch-N-Learn Financial Seminar Set for 11 a.m. Tues. in Morris

As part of this month's Black History Celebration, a Lunch-N-Learn seminar on debt management and investments will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Morris Auditorium. Lester Jones, regional vice president of Primerica Financial Services, will be the speaker. Contact: Jan Matthews, 4-0420.

Recycling Committee to Reward Environmental Good Deeds

On Earth Day in April, MSFC's Recycling Committee will recognize employees and on-site contractors for environmental good deeds. Winners will receive gift certificates to Wild Birds Unlimited. To nominate someone, send his or her name, mail code and telephone number, along with a brief description of the environmental good deed to Ted Ellett or Doug Danley. More information is available on the Web at <http://www.recycle.msfc.nasa.gov/>.

Tornado Drill, 10 a.m. Mon.